

Continuous Improvement Lead (M/F/X) – LGG Entity

The main role of the Continuous Improvement Team is to improve processes, support other teams in solving difficult issues and projects and create a culture of continuous improvement. The CI Lead is part of the Continuous Improvement team and reports to the Continuous Improvement Manager of BeNeDen (Belgium, the Netherlands and Denmark). In this assignment, the successful candidate will be actively involved in planning, coordinating, and supporting Continuous Improvement projects on the LGG station

Responsibilities

- Support daily CI initiatives such as the implementation of improvement principles and tools (dashboards, automation...)
- Monitoring the Process Control
- Analyse and troubleshooting of process problems
- Provide assistance in implementing and facilitating CI Projects through the use of various CI tools and methodologies such as Kaizen events, 5S, Value Stream mapping...
- Supporting the creation and implementation of a CI Culture

Qualifications

- Operational oriented
- Good knowledge of Cargo
- Listening to others
- Good oral, written and verbal communication
- Ability to motivate and influence others
- Conflict resolution
- Results oriented
- Time and project management

Our client offers a diverse job in a growing company with a market competitive salary including benefits, mobile phone, DKV hospitalization insurance, e-bike lease

Interested ?

Please send us your CV: philippe@exseco.be or online https://recruitcrm.io/jobs/ExSeCo_jobs